Lyric Book

1. I Know

by Soyinka Rahim © 2016 from the album BIBO LOVE | BIBO LOVE.US

I know, I know, I know, I know.

I know that you move through me
Show me your rhythm
to move through this world with your Love, Dear Love.

Hold me,
Show me,
Speak to my spirit
to move through this world with your love, Dear Love.

Your Way, My Way, Your Way, My Way, Our Way.

Show me my sisters, my brothers, those spirits
that move through this world with your Love, Dear Love.

We're greedy and selfish and petty, misguided.
Show us the way to your Love, Dear Love.

I know, I know, I know, I know.

Your Way, My Way, Your Way, My Way, Our Way.

I know that you move through me
Show me your rhythm
to move through this world with your Love, Dear Love.

Hold me
Show me
Speak to my spirit
to move through this world with your Love, Dear Love.

Show me my sisters, my brothers, those spirits
that move through this world with your Love, Dear Love.

I know, I know, I know, I know.

2. There Is No Gift So Holy

by Richard Bruxvoort Colligan (inspired by Margery Kempe) | © 2025 WorldMaking.net (ASCAP)
| Licensed via OneLicense.net, CCLI, and WorldMaking.net

Chorus

There is no gift so holy as the gift of love, oh love.
There is no gift so holy as the gift of love, oh love.

Praying for mercy, sobbing for freedom, a heart of hope and pain.
Troubled in spirit, restless with visions, a creature held in God's sweet embrace.

Chorus

Long have you traveled pilgrimage journeys, longing to free us all.
Mother to many, seeking forgiveness, devoted to Christ's love and call

3. Release

by Deirdre Ní Chinnéide © 2020 from the album I Will Sing for You | DeirdreNiChinneide.ie

May your Love be gently written on my heart.
May your Grace embrace me from the very start ...
And as I listen for your way
And as you guide each night and day ...
May your love release my open heart.

May your Love be gently written on my heart.
May your Grace embrace me from the very start ...
And as I listen for your way
And as you guide each night and day ...
May your love release my open heart.

4. Mend Your Heart

by Dena Ross Jennings © 2025 | ImaniWorks.net

Mend your heart while I hold your hand Take all the time your spirit needs
I'm forever your loving friend
Don't let go Just hold my hand
Oh, oh, oo-oo

Through the storm, through the rain
I'm loving you in sickness and pain
I will stand with you—
Your loving friend
I'll hold your hand until the end
And again, I'll stand with you Forever I'll stay Forever I'm with you
With you always Oh, oh, oh oh oh
Oooo

5. Wade in the Water

Traditional Black Spiritual, Arranged and performed by Benjamin Mertz © 2025 from the album Climbing Up the Mountain | Benjasoul.com

See them children dressed in white Gonna trouble the water
The leader looks like the Israelite Gonna trouble the water

Chorus

I said
Wade in the water
Wade in the water, children
Wade in the water
My God's gonna trouble the water (x2)

Don't you see them children dressed in red God's gonna trouble the water
They look like the band that Moses led God's gonna trouble the water

See them children all dressed in black
God's gonna trouble the water
They're goin' over Jordon and they ain't coming back God's gonna trouble the water

Chorus

6. Plowshare Prayer

by Spencer LaJoye © 2022 | SpencerLaJoye.com

Dear blessed creator, dear mother, dear savior Dear father, dear brother, dear holy other Dear sibling, dear baby, dear patiently waiting Dear sad and confused, dear stuck and abused

Dear end-of-your-rope, dear worn out and broke,
Dear go-it-alone, dear running from home
Dear righteously angry, forsaken by family
Dear jaded and quiet, dear tough and defiant

I pray that I'm heard
And I pray that this works

I pray if a prayer has been used as a sword against you and your heart, against you and your word
I pray that this prayer is a plowshare, of sorts that it might break you open, it might help you grow

I pray that your body gets all that it needs and if you don't want healing, I just pray for peace I pray that your burden gets lighter each day
I pray the mean voice in your head goes away

I pray that you honor the grief as it comes I pray you can feel all the life in your lungs I pray that if you go all day being brave that you can go home, go to bed feeling safe

I pray you're forgiven, I pray you forgive
I pray you set boundaries and openly live I pray that you feel you are worth never leaving I pray that you know I will always believe you

I pray that you're heard
and I pray that this works

Amen on behalf of the last and the least On behalf of the anxious, depressed, and unseen Amen for the workers, the hungry, the houseless Amen for the lonely and recently spouseless

Amen for the queers and their closeted peers Amen for the bullied who hold in their tears Amen for the mothers of little Black sons Amen for the kids who grow up scared of guns

Amen for the addicts, the ashamed and hungover Amen for the calloused, the wisened, the sober Amen for the ones who want life to be over Amen for the leaders who lose their composure

Amen for the parents who just lost their baby Amen for the chronically ill and disabled Amen for the children down at the border
Amen for the victims of our law and order

I pray that you're heard
and I pray that this works

I pray if a prayer has been used as a sword
against you and your heart, against you and your word
I pray that this prayer is a plowshare, of sorts

9. Dweller

by Joel McKerrow © 2012 from the album One Foot in the Clay | JoelMcKerrow.com

I am an artist and a pilgrim
We are artists and we are pilgrims of the threshold.

Between the dying and falling away of winter
And the rebirth of the song of the birds of spring, we dwell there in possibility.

Between oranges, ochres, reds and yellows And greens, jades, limes and ocean blue, who thread themselves together in threshold tapestries of death and life, despair and hope.
A cocoon of shedding skins and promised wings of caterpillars dying and butterflies rising.
Of dark enclosed night and light filled day where whispers of the night entangle threads into daylight.

And in this lowering sun I am at one with the dusk of earth's closing eyes.

And I can see a world that was here all along yet hidden now until the dusk fell.
Until the night met the day.
Until I dwell as a pilgrim of the threshold.

As the sky that breaks through this night bends low to whisper to me of the green land that I once called home.
Where I stood tall in these rains and knew at those moments that life was larger than every drip and every drop upon my back.
That there were stories I could get lost in.
That there were stories I could get found in.

Where the puddles that I played in were the pooling of all the things that would call us beyond these stars, out of our cocoons, to play in rain-soaked playgrounds where anything was possible.
And every drip and every drop that broke their backs upon the ground they rushed toward.
SLOW DOWN!
I wanted to yell at them
Slow down and realize that life does not have to be like this.
Dreams to not have to wake like this.

For here in this twilight we are artists and we are pilgrims with one foot in the clay, one hand chained earthbound, as the other stretches to the sky.
We find the tears in the curtain where the divine reaches through her hand to offer her water to our lips.
This is the true pilgrim, he who stands upon the threshold with one hand to the heavens and the other to the earth.
To not run from the world into the heavens but to hold the two together.
The dweller, who holds worlds together beneath these stars.
We hold worlds together beneath these stars.

For we dwell in possibility.

Artists and pilgrims and actors and dancers and poets and prophets and singers and painters and lovers and creators...

and there is hope in our eyes.

Between the dying and falling away of winter and the rebirth of the songs of the birds of spring there is hope in our eyes.

There is hope in my eyes.

There is hope.

There is hope.

Fear not the pain

Fear not the pain

Let its weight fall back into the earth

For heavy the seas

11. Dreams

by Soyinka Rahim © 2025 | BIBOLOVE.US

Dreams. So many many many many many dreams.

Dreams. So many many many many many many many dreams.

I dream. You dream. We dream.

I am the one. You are the one. We are the ones.

I am the one (I'm) we're dreaming of ... I am love.

You are the one we're dreaming of ... You are love.

We are the ones we're dreaming of ... We are love.

We are the ones we're dreaming of ... We are love.

I am love, you are love, we are love.

13. May this Body Be a Bridge

by Te Martin © 2021 from the album Water & Bones | TeMartin.bandcamp.com

May this body be a bridge for the healing of this land
May the river flow through us cleansing greed from our hands
We are, we are born from the water
We are, we are made from the land Teach us, teach us, oh great mother
To bring, to bring peace to this land

14. Revolution of the Heart by David Ash (inspired by Dorothy Day) © 2015 from the album Singing with Monks and Mystics | LauraDavidAsh.Bandcamp.com

Chorus

We must bring about a Revolution of the heart.
We must feed not just the body but the soul.
For the Gospel takes away our right to stand apart.
We must stand with all the poor and be made whole.

One brick at a time, a pebble in a pond,
Causes ripples spreading everywhere from you.
Each step that we take and each one of our deeds Gives us hope for all the work that we must do.

Chorus

To love everyone, our enemy and friend,
In an ever-widening circle round the earth
To help everyone to feed and clothe themselves For the poor and destitute all have their worth.

Chorus

And so, we must fight and cry out for the rights And the dignity of workers we employ.
For true love is full of beauty and of grace, Understanding and perception full of joy

16. Nairobi Women's Peace Song

Written by Karen MacKay and Nancy Nordlie

Performed and Recorded by Lorraine Bayes © 2007 from the album Rainbow Songs, Rainbow Prayers | LorraineBayes.Bandcamp.com

If every woman in the world had her mind set on freedom
If every woman in the world dreamed a sweet dream of peace
If every woman in every nation, young and old, each generation held her arms out in the name of love, there would be no more war.

If every man in the world had his mind set on freedom
If every man in the world dreamed a sweet dream of peace
If every man in every nation, young and old, each generation held his arms out in the name of love, there would be no more war.

If all the children in the world had their minds set on freedom
If all the children in the world dreamed a sweet dream of peace
If all the children in every nation, young and old, each generation held their arms out in the name of love, there would be no more war.

If all the people in the world had their minds set on freedom
If all the people in the world dreamed a sweet dream of peace
If all the people in every nation, young and old, each generation held their arms out in the name of love, there would be no more war.

Held their arms out in the name of love, let us all live in peace.

17. All Belong Here

Lyrics by Lenora Rand; Music by Hannah Rand

As recorded by The Many ©2017 Plural Guild Music from the album All Belong Here |

TheManyAreHere.info

1.

When you're not sure who you really are When all you feel is the shape of your scars
And you have more wounds than you can count
Open your eyes, look all around
You aren't alone, this is your home

Chorus:

Come and remember who you are here
Do this to remember who I am Come and remember you belong here
All belong here.

2.

When you don't know how to forgive
When locked doors seem like the only way to live
And you've got more questions than you can count
Open your eyes, look all around
You aren't alone, this is your home

Bridge

At this table come as you are Broken and bleeding's ok
At this table eat and be filled Come and drink in this grace.

Chorus

18. Praise the Maker

by Alana Levandoski © 2024 from the album Cianalas/Tāsknota | AlanaLevandoski.com

With stars in the night
With froth of the wave
With fang of the wolf
We offer our praise
With life of the sun
With glow of the moon
With stones and ley lines
We offer our praise

Chorus

Praise the maker
Praise the maker
We howl, and we sing
Praise the maker
Praise the maker
Within all things

With snow in the blizzard and with heather on the hills With herds upon plains
We offer our praise
With wombs and with caves and with the mounds of our graves with the breast of a hill
we offer our praise

Chorus

With falcons with ancients with antlers and dancers all singers all stories all patterns

all grieving all storms and all rivers all mud and all water with each atom and each planet
we offer our praise

with the clowns and the shamans and the priests and the priestesses

with all people and all places
we offer our praise
with the whales and the spiders and the webs and the weaving with birth and with leaving
we offer our praise

Chorus

This longing is our home
longing
This longing is our home
longing
